

The Swiss Gymnastics Federation is looking to hire a

Head Coach full-time (m/f) for its National Trampoline Squad

Goals:

- Qualification of a male and/or female gymnast to the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo
- Diploma rankings at the EC/WC

Tasks:

- Lead the national squad in collaboration with the coaches of national performance centres
- Organise the work: train a group approximately 3 days per week in Aigle and visit and provide technical support to regional performance centres approximately 2 days per week
- Organise and lead squad groupings and training camps of the national squad
- Support junior squad groupings if need be
- Select gymnasts to join the national squad
- Prepare gymnasts to compete at major international events (EC, WC, OG) and at international tournaments
- Participate in the education of trainers and coaches as well as in the education of judges

Requirements:

- Coaching certificate at the highest level (Switzerland: formation d'entraîneur diplômé (FED)/ Diplomtrainer Ausbildung (DTA), France: brevet d'Etat d'éducateur sportif 2^{ème} degré, Germany: Diplomtrainer der Trainerakademie Köln or equivalent education)
- Several years of occupational experience
- Good knowledge of the international gymnastics stage
- Ability to cope with pressure and to impose his/her authority
- Good organisational skills
- Language skills: German/English or French/English. Readiness to learn an additional national language

Work place:

Aigle/Switzerland + Switzerland as a whole

Entry into service:

Immediately or upon agreement

Please send the usual application file (with picture and expected salary range) to the following address:

Swiss Gymnastics Federation

Felix Stingelin

Head of Elite Sport

PO Box

5001 Aarau

For any further information you may require, please contact Felix Stingelin (+41 (0)62 837 82 00).