

*GYMmedia Job Exchange: German Club TuS Chemnitz-Altendorf is urgently looking for qualified coaches

The GYMmedia Job Exchange - the most efficient form of job search in the field of gymnastics disciplines - with current offers:

! The German Top Center of femal artistic gymnastics in Chemnitz - home club of the current World champion on beam, Pauline Schaefer, Olympic medallist Sophie Scheder but also a field of numerous internationally hopeful talents - urgently looking for qualified and dedicated coaches for its national squad athletes specializing in jump & acrobatics and more ...

* Chief coach Gabriele Frehse:

"The girls and young ladies of the German Gymnastics Federation have been extremely successful this year!

To keep it that way, we are urgently looking for more motivated coaches in our top center TuS Chemnitz-Altendorf (Saxonia, near Dresden).

There are several well-paid vacancies!

All this is needed:

Head coach, assistant coach, coach for the female part (uneven bars, gymnastics etc.), trainer for acrobatics and vault.

All that matters is high qualification, motivation and progressive drive!"

Dream team (from left):
Schaefer, Frehse, Scheder:
... they all need urgent reinforcement!

◆◆ Applications should be sent to:

TuS 1861 Chemnitz-Altendorf e. V.

Waldenburger Straße 66

09116 Chemnitz;

- GERMANY -

E-Mail: info@tus-chemnitz.de

Tel.: 0049-371/363522

Fax: 0049-371/4323112

Internet: www.tus-chemnitz.de